Hi Paul! I just shared the following with Kim. 😊

- Police are expecting a minimum of 100 trucks, ranging in size from 53' Foot Trailers to pick-up trucks.
- It's difficult to predict the true size and intent of this event. Apparently, the organizers' Go Fund Me page now has $3M in donations.
- The National Capital Region Command Centre (NCRCC) is being stood up and will operate in-person.
- The City Traffic Incident Management Group (TIMG) is being stood up and will be linked to the NCRCC.
- Ottawa Police are planning on an operational deployment period of 3 days from Friday to Sunday, 24hrs/day.
- It will likely not be possible to access City Hall during this event. Clayton's team is meeting with OPS tomorrow to learn more. The problem is that the Convoy may use Confederation Park as a staging area.
- The EOC will activate to "Situational Awareness/Monitoring"; we can go higher, if required. We will continue to operate virtually although we might send a rep to the NCRCC, as appropriate.
- Based on the info we now know, we will hold a Duty Officer call tomorrow afternoon. The purpose will be to ensure that all City Services are looped in and can plan accordingly. For example, Transit Services will need to adjust bus routes. Also, knock on wood but... if there is a water main issue during this event, Water Services won't have access to certain parts of the City. So, it's that kind of awareness that we think the EOC can help coordinate.

p.s. We don't yet know the activities/actions planned by Parliamentary Protective Service re Parliament Hill.

Good Afternoon Team

For your situational awareness. Our FSU (Fire Support Unit) / Public Order Unit is reaching out to Police to inquire if any planning is occurring as a result of this truck rally.

Beth – has any information been shared with the EOC to date by Police?

Thanks

Paul

Hi All,

I just spoke with a gentleman at the front counter that is going around to agencies on behalf of the rally coming to Ottawa this weekend. A few points from our conversation:

- They have no permit and are not getting one
- Their expectation from the 4 convoys (from Quebec, Northern and Southern Ontario, and out West) is upwards of 50 000
- They plan to camp out at parliament indefinitely and also plan to attempt to perform a citizens arrest on PM Trudeau

They currently do not have a route planned but also said they wanted to impact operations as little as possible. Their contact details are:
